Bora Bora Lagoon Resort & Spa

BORA BORA, FRENCH POLYNESIA

BORA BORA LAGOON RESORT & Spa, an Orient-Express Hotel, is a 77 bungalow, private island resort in Bora Bora, featuring the only treetop spa in the South Pacific.

The Polynesian word Maru translates to "kind, gentle, slowly, soft of sound and soft of touch". Located on a small motu in the middle of the most beautiful lagoon in the world, Maru Spa is the most authentic Polynesian Spa in the Pacific Ocean. It overlooks the lagoon and faces Mount Pahia. High up in the branches of two giant Banyan trees, the wooden cabins are almost hidden making it the ultimate place to experience treatments.

The simple, smooth, rippling sound of the lagoon, along with gentle breezes dancing through the leaves of the trees, provide the sublime soundtrack to Maru Spa which features six treatment rooms, some set on the waterfront and others 12 feet above ground, in the branches of two large banyan trees.

Upon entering the beachfront lobby, the hardwood floors, bamboo and stone accents capture the essence of the Tahitian Islands. Two treetop massage and body treatment rooms feature large windows that open to the lagoon and private outdoor shower, while two beachfront rooms in the main bungalow can be joined with a center sliding door for couples massage treatments. A fifth treatment room on the main level features a bath for water treatments.

Maru Spa's Polynesian influence echoes in the signature treatments available. Locals have kept the knowledge of using plants, flowers and specific fruits such as the "Monoi" for medicinal or cosmetic purposes. The Monoi oil itself is the basis of Maru Spa's signature treatments. Only the purest of local plants, flowers, fruits and other ingredients are used in creating Maru Spa's natural Signature products. The result is an authentic Polynesian spa experience for all the senses.
