Superlative Peru

I wanted to let Andrew Harper Travel know that the trip organized for us was outstanding. The guides arranged through Aracari were simply exceptional. John in Lima and Yvonne in Cusco were pleasant, helpful, informed, insightful, and passionate about their work. We were a group composed of many, with backgrounds in art and architecture history, and we were truly impressed by the depth of their knowledge. When we thought it couldn't get any better, our last day in Lima with dinner at the Larco Art Museum was yet another highlight. We will certainly book travel through your company again, as you truly understand the unique blend of comfort with true exploration. —K.Q.

New to Andrew Harper Travel

We received your excellently prepared itinerary and travel information today. The Grenadier looks quite intriguing! Thank you so much for all your sage advice, follow up, patience, attention to detail and always pleasant demeanor! We have been subscribers to your services for many years, and have traveled a fair amount by ourselves or as part of guided groups. This is the first time we have finally figured out that we should try the [Andrew Harper Travel] service, and I assure you it won't be the last. Several friends also are subscribers, and we will be urging them to give you a call.

The Orient in Africa

We just returned from our Orient-Express trip to southern Africa, and I must say that it was the trip of a lifetime! Your company runs an outstanding operation and we were treated royally.

The organization of our schedule was flawless. The trip began at the Westcliff, which was truly a beautiful property, and we were sorry not to have spent more time there. The three camps in Botswana were amazing! Your staff at all the camps should be congratulated on how well they treat guests. It was a wonderful gesture of Orient-Express to give us the birthday gift of the helicopter tour at Eagle Island; it was unforgettable and much appreciated.

The next gracious gesture was to arrange for the Livingstone Suite at the Victoria Falls Hotel. The room was great and the hotel was superb. The tour operator in Victoria Falls was also exceptional and every detail was taken care of.

Finally, the Mount Nelson was truly a treat. The upgrade to the Rose Cottage was yet another lovely gesture on your part, and we enjoyed that immensely. The staff at the hotel was, for the most part, superb, especially the managerial staff who could not do enough for us; they deserve highest congratulations. It was also nice of Connie from your office to leave us a message checking that everything was right.

We are experienced travelers, having been all over the world in the past 25 years, and having stayed at some of the most luxurious properties. We can honestly say that this trip was probably the best we have ever taken, and it is in no small part due to your efforts. It was a pleasure to have dealt with Orient-Express, and you in particular.

A Dedicated Member

I wanted to thank you again for your help with our most wonderful trip! The planning was well done, the right people met us on time, the guide was superb, and everything went really well. The hotels you chose were really great—I'd have to say Santorini was my favorite, but they were all exceptional. Thank you, thank you, thank you! We will be using Andrew Harper for a long, long time to come!
