California

Chardonnay

The premium white wine grape of California, which also produces the great White Burgundies including Meursault, Pouilly Fuisse and the Montrachets. California Chardonnays are full-bodied, crisp and dry. Added dimension of aging in small oak barrels can increase Chardonnay's complexity.

Italy

France and Italy will argue eternally about which country produces the most wine. Not in dispute however is consumption: Italy wins belly up! 70 liters per person, per annum, compared with 7 liters for the U.S.A.!

Unique and Exotic /Esoteric Wines

A selection of wines often overlooked in the search for what is familiar and known.

White:

1265	Remelluri Blanco, Rioja, Spain	2007	129.00
	A stunning wine made, by special dispensation, from seven different white wine varietals: Chardonnay, Grenache Blanc, Roussane, Marsanne, Viognier, Moscatel and Sauvignon Blanc. Aged in oak on the lees for 14 then distributed in tiny allocations. Yum!
782	Savennieres, Baumard, Loire, France	2005	65.00
	Although principally known for its white wines made from Sauvignon Blanc such as Sancerre, the Loire Valley also makes some indelible wines from Chenin Blanc as well. The Baumard Savennieres excels in its laser-guided minerality and crispness.
534	Tablas Creek, Esprit de Beaucastel, Paso Robles	2007	79.00
	Initiated by the Haas family and the owners of Chateau Beaucastel in France, this California outpost specializes in Rhone varietals such as Syrah, Grenache and Mourvedre. The Esprit de Beaucastel Blanc is made of Grenache Blanc and Marsanne mainly and exhibits honey, spice, green apple and anise flavors.
1216	Vermentino, Terenzuola, Sardinia, Italy	2008	39.00
	An often overlooked white varietal grown principally in Sardinia, Vermentino is always crisp and fresh with hints of peppered citrus and pear.
1206	Colome Torrontes, Salta, Argentina	2008	39.00
	Long known as the 'lost' grape of Argentina, Torrontes has now come into its own as the leading white wine grape of the country. Flavors of peach-pit, orange blossom and citrus predominate in this dry wine.

Red:

792	Chateau Musar 1999, Bekaa Valley, Lebanon	1999	109.00
	One of the great wines of the world. Made both in war and peace. A totally unique blend of Cinsault and Cabernet, aged for 2 years in French oak then released 5 years after the vintage. Could be described as a spicy Chateauneuf du Pape.

1239	Freisa, Bosco Delle Cicale, 2007, Italy	2007	45.00
	Freisa is a red Italian grape grown in the Piedmont region of north-west Italy , primarily in Monferrato and in the Langhe . Freisa is a vigorous and productive vine whose round, blue-black grapes are harvested in early October. The three-lobed leaves are relatively small and the bunches are elongated in form. By the 1880s it had become one of the major Piedmontese grapes. The wines are often characterized with strawberry, raspberry and violet aromas .
781.5	Bourgueil, Domaine Mabileau 'Eclipse', Loire, France	2005	63.00
	A great deal of Cabernet Franc is grown in the lovely Loire Valley and goes under names such as Chinon, or, in this case, Bourgueil. The Loire versions of Cab Franc share the green pepper essence of other Cab Francs, but also have hints of boysenberries and plums.
994	Orin Swift 'Prisoner', Napa	2008	79.00
	New 'cult' wine made by David Phinney. A delicious blend of Zinfandel Cabernet, Syrah and Grenach. Think cracked pepper, licorice and sage all melded into a smooth finish.
902	Tablas Creek, Esprit de Beaucastel, Paso Robles	2007	95.00
	See the winery description under white wines. The Esprit Red got 97 points from Robert Parker who described it as "full of raspberry, cassis and incense."
1080.2	Flying Fox Petit Verdot, Virginia	2006	49.00
	Gold medal winner in the 2009 Monticello Cup, the "FFPV" is deep and brooding with beautiful blackberry and cherry flavors and a long smooth finish.
No #	Alto Moncayo, Campo de Borja, Spain	2007	95.00
	A perennial staff favorite, the Alto Moncayo is sex in a glass. Intense extracted blackberry flavors combined with hints of chocolate and tar. Made by Australian winemaker Chris Ringland.
