RAVELLO: BETWEEN SKY AND SEA, A JOURNEY TO THE SOUL

Perched high above the renowned Amalfi Coast, Ravello is a place that has writers plundering their store of adjectives: magnificent, romantic, sublime, spectacular, stunning, splendid, enchanted.

All true, but none of these expressions can paint a clearer picture than the words of the English landscape artist William Collins, who said with disarming simplicity:
“Ravello is unlike anything I ever beheld”.

A ROMANTIC HIDEAWAY FOR A PRIVILEGED FEW

Set on towering cliffs, Hotel Caruso is an oasis of tranquillity in the hill town of Ravello.

A hotel at the heart of this delightful little town, the Caruso dates back to 1800 and has been beautifully restored.

MAGICAL GARDENS OF LIGHT AND SHADE

Wonderfully restored, this historic building sits among terraced gardens with sensational views.
The scent of lemons spices the air, roses clamber over arches.

50 rooms and suites decorated with frescoes, majolica, marble and antiques.

Windows frame panoramas of exceptional beauty.

PEERLESS HOSPITALITY AND SERVICE

The décor of the suites is pure refinement and harmony.
Gentle colours; windows framing dramatic vistas.
